

THE TRUTH IS LOVE

We should live in a world that let's you be a boy or a girl
Before you're forced to grow up
Just imagine a world where everything is led by your soul
And your heart is in control

Well I dream of a life full of loving
Although, it seems the truth is bluffing
'Cause all I see is fractured harmony
Between you and me, let's agree
The truth is love
The truth is love

It shouldn't be okay to live life and live so afraid
That you never speak your truth babe
It will be okay if we just let innocence lead the way
To our future, take a step and change

'Cause I dream of a life full of loving
Although, it seems the truth is bluffing
'Cause all I see is fractured harmony
Between you and me, let's agree
The truth is love
The truth is love

I dream of a life that is better
Where we help each other through whatever
I dream of a love that is clearer
So between you and me, can we agree

'Cause I dream of a life full of loving
Although, it seems the truth is bluffing
'Cause all I see is fractured harmony
Between you and me, let's agree
Oh

'Cause I dream of a life full of loving
Although, it seems the truth is bluffing
'Cause all I see is fractured harmony
Between you and me, let's agree
The truth is love
Oh the truth is love

It has to be
It has to be love
